ARRESTED, CHARGED WITH STEALING AUTO

GEORGE MOODY IN CUSTODY ON A WARRANT WIRED FROM CALIFORNIA

George Moody of San Francisco was placed under arrest last evening by Chief of Police Evans on a charge of grand larceny. The arrest was made on a warrant telegraphed by Chief of Police D. A. White of San Francisco. Benjamin Lieber of San Francisco is the complaining witness. He swears that Moody stole from him a Pope Hartford touring car, which he, and an accomplice, drove to Nevada. The other defendant has not yet been apprehended. Moody is in jail, awaiting the arrival of an officer from the coast with extradition papers. The auto was found in a local garage.

COURT SUSTAINS THE PLAINTIFF'S DEMURRER

BOTH COMPANIES ALLOWED FIFTEEN DAYS TO AMEND ITS ANSWER

Judge Averill handed down an opinion in the district court in the case of J. G. Crumley, plaintiff, against the Pullman company and the Southern Pacific company, et al, defendants, on a demurrer in answer of the Pullman company, and motion to strike. The opinion follows:

"The motion to strike portions of the answer of the two companies is denied, though this court does not thereby admit these portions have any real value as defensive matter, allowing them to stand as descriptive of the occurrence upon which the complaint is founded and for whatever value it may appear they have upon the trial of the case."

"The demurrer of the plaintiff to the answer of the Pullman company is sustained; and fifteen days are allowed for amendment."

Direct from Chicago, with a wonderful cast, comes the latest dramatized sensation, "The Price She Paid," with Miss Bernice Bonard as the star. The play, which has aroused the most wonderful enthusiasm wherever it has been presented, appeals so strongly to James O'Donnell Bennett, the editor of the Chicago Tribune, that he wrote the following criticism:

"Imagine a talented woman, an artist, thrown on her own resources, without friends and influence. Picture her consternation when she comes face to face with the callous people of the world. Fancy her surprise when she is disillusioned and awakes from her beautiful dream to find that some men have sunk so low as to have forgotten the respect and regard that should be accorded to pure true womanhood."

"It is at this important juncture that the real man, the gentleman, steps in, and by his respect and kindness wins first her admiration and finally her love. The sterling value of the man's honesty gradually effaces the opinion growing in the girl's mind that the world is filled with people dead to all save dishonor."

"The Price She Paid" is a great play, a wonderful silhouette of human nature. It seems much to any girl because it will show her that while pitfalls do exist in real life, and while the broad road is particularly inviting the great big world really possesses a clean, wholesome aspect to a healthy minded, virtuous woman."—Adv.

THE PASTIME THEATER

"As Ye Sow," Rev. John Snyder's Cape Cod drama, is an excellent offering and will be seen at the Pastime for today only, together with an interesting number of the Pathe Weekly. "As Ye Sow" holds interest well all the way through and some after scene of the picture comes especially because set and background are so artistic, natural and clear.

"The Dollar Mark" made a decided hit last night and so marked was its success that the management has arranged to show the picture again tomorrow in order to give the many who were forced to miss the picture (owing to weather conditions) another opportunity to see it. If you are in doubt of the picture ask some of the many who witnessed it. Friday, the benefit day for Miss Vera Rumsey's condition remains unchanged.

James Rumsey, who shot himself yesterday morning, is resting easy today and there are hopes held out for his recovery. No infection is yet noticeable. The young man's friends all hope for his ultimate recovery.

Mrs. E. L. Marks, a caterer of renown from Monrovia, Cal., has opened a first-class dining hall at 130 Summit street, opposite the Catholic church. Why pay $35 per month when you can get the best in town for $30?—A26M26

Alexander Hamilton—"Father of American Credit"

DANIEL WEBSTER says of Hamilton: "He smote the rock of National resources and abundant streams of revenue gushed forth; he touched the dead corpse of public credit and it sprang upon its feet." No man did more to build the Constitution of the United States than did Hamilton. He took a prominent part in every debate, and worked indefatigably on all the important committees. His genius, individuality and daring foresight are indelibly stamped upon every clause of our National Law—the law under which Americans are guaranteed for all time Religious, Commercial and Personal Liberty. During Hamilton's lifetime he used his great influence to encourage and protect the brewing industry. Among all the Fathers of the Republic none knew better than he that honestly-brewed barley-malt beers make for true temperance. This American Colossus, who was second only to Washington in the service rendered to his country, drank good beer all his days. We know of no one who has yet dared declare that it injured him in any way. Under the tenets of the Constitution, which Hamilton did so much to make a fact, Anheuser-Busch 58 years ago launched their great institution. During these years they have honestly brewed honest beers. To-day 7500 people are daily required to meet the public demand. Their world-famed brand BUDWEISER because of its quality, purity, mildness and exquisite flavor, exceeds the sale of any other beer by millions of bottles.

Visitors to St. Louis are courteously invited to inspect our plant—covers 443 acres.

BUTLER THEATER

A special program of five reels will be the attraction at the Butler this evening, the proceeds of the theater to be given to Miss Lavina Shields, local contestant of the Reno Gazette exposition trip contest to the San Francisco fair. Miss Shields has worked hard and earnestly, selling a great number of tickets to her Tonopah friends, who all wish her the success to which hard work and diligence is entitled, and the management has arranged one of the best programs that has been seen at the Butler for some time, so that everyone attending will be assured of a good night's entertainment. The program consists of "The Guardian's Dilemma," a Selig Wild Animal comedy which is full of fun, and especially pleasing to the little folks, as all the animals from the big Selig zoo will be in evidence in all their different antics; "Coat Tales," a Keystone comedy, which will make everybody laugh, and concluding with one of the best Broadway Star three-reel features that has been shown, "The Radium Thieves," with your favorite star, Leah Baird, assisted by Roger Lytton and Lee Delaney, the pick of the Vitaphone company. Miss Shields will be on hand at the door to greet her many friends who are doing their part toward bringing her in a winner. The usual admission, 10 cents.—Adv.

H. J. HILL and wife are visitors from Detroit.
